

Marianist founder Father Chaminade beatified

Celebrating Mass Sept. 3 in St. Peter's Square in front of about 80,000 people, Pope John Paul II declared as "blessed" French Father William Joseph Chaminade, founder of the Society of Mary religious order.

Beatification is the process in the Catholic Church that declares an individual to be among the blessed in heaven. Generally, it serves as a preliminary step toward canonization to sainthood.

Blessed Chaminade was one of five individuals beatified. The Vatican ceremony brought together supporters of the five figures from every continent, who applauded as the pope pronounced the beatification decrees and as tapestry portraits of the new blessed were unveiled.

The pope spoke briefly about each of the newly beatified:

Blessed Chaminade, who had to flee the "reign of terror" in revolutionary France in 1797 and returned three years later to evangelize a largely de-Christianized society, reminds Catholics today of the need to "constantly re-invent new ways of being witnesses of the faith," the pope said. This has special meaning for those who have fallen away from the church, he said.

About 7,000 pilgrims wearing special scarves and ribbons dedicated to Blessed Chaminade represented the spirit of the Marianist founder, whose religious order is still going strong in schools and other institutions in 34 countries around the world.

The Marianist communities that serve the Catholic Diocese of Cleveland are inviting all those who have been part of their ministries to a celebration of the beatification.

A Eucharist will be celebrated at 6:30 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 3 at St. John the Evangelist Cathedral in downtown Cleveland. Bishop Anthony M. Pilla will be the main celebrant and homilist. A social will follow.

Rev. William Joseph Chaminade, Society of Mary founder.

Make your hotel reservations by October 20, 2000 to guarantee the special rate. Please use the registration form below to reserve your seat at the dinner. Bring your spouse, classmates and friends and reserve a table (tables of 8). Classmates of the inductees are especially encouraged to attend the dinner and personally congratulate their classmate.

For further information contact the Alumni office at 216-691-9999 or Chris Lynch at 216-383-4926.

The four inductees into the Hall of Fame are:

William "Bill" Hallal — Class of 1973

Bill Hallal was an outstanding running back on the 1971 and 1972 football teams that returned the winning tradition to Latin with back-to-back winning seasons. Bill joins teammates Jim "Dubber" Ward, Jim Weiler, and Gary Jeter in the Hall of Fame. Bill was the third leading scorer on this team, ranked second in rushing and was the leading kickoff returner with a 21.4 yard average. The Latin football teams of 1971 and 1972 had 22 young gentlemen receive scholarships to major colleges.

Bill received his degree from Ohio University in 1977. He is employed by Huntington National Bank as a Vice President in investment sales and resides in Highland Heights, Ohio.

Ted Horansky — Class of 1975

While attending Cathedral Latin, Ted participated in both football and track. During his senior year in track, Ted had the honor of competing in the state finals in Columbus as a shot putter.

Ted was a two-year starter on the varsity football team and achieved All-Crown Conference and All-Ohio honors. His prowess in football was such that he received a full scholarship to Notre Dame University. While attending Notre Dame, Ted became the starting offensive guard on the 1977 national championship team coached by Dan Devine. Ted joins his brother, Mark '72, and classmate Chris Lynch as a member of the Cathedral Latin Hall of Fame.

Ted is employed by Landstar Systems, Inc. as their Eastern Regional Manager.

Anthony "Tony" Strickland — Class of 1978

Tony was described as being the true "point guard" during his basketball playing days at Cathedral Latin. In his junior year, the Lions won the basketball state championship. As captain of his senior year team, which finished 21-4, the Lions were Crown Conference, district and regional champions. During the regional championship game against Brookfield, Tony dished out 15 of Latin's 25 assist for the game. Tony joins teammates Bob Lowrie, Colin Irish, Karl Morris, Ed Washington, Geoff Warren, and Michael Harris in the Hall of Fame. A member of the National Honor Society during his junior and senior years, he is the first inductee from his class.

Tony graduated from Heidelberg College and received his degree in Business Administration. He is employed by the Cleveland Public Library.

Sam Ruvolo — Latin football coach from 1960—1968

While at Cathedral Latin, Mr. Ruvolo's eight years as head football coach ranks second only to Herb Eisele in tenure. His teams' 49 wins ranks second again to legendary Coach Eisele. The 1960 football team was the East Senate tri-champs and the 1961 team was co-champs in the East Senate. The 1961 team played in the annual Charity Game at the original Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

Coach Ruvolo graduated from Kent State University and received his masters degree from Case Western Reserve. Sam is self-employed in the insurance and financial services field.

8th Annual golf outing

a "Roaring" Success

Although no official poll was taken, the eighth annual Latin Alumni Golf Outing was a huge success by any measure. This year's event was held at Grantwood Golf Course in Solon on Friday, June 30. For many, it was an ideal way to kick off the long Fourth of July holiday. Golfers came from places as remote as Florida, Oregon, and Massachusetts to participate.

Under picture-perfect sunny skies, 163 linkin' Latin Lions and their guests enjoyed a fun-filled day of golf, all the food they could eat, and that great CL camaraderie. The event featured a scramble-style golf tournament, a skins game, skill prizes for both seniors and "youngsters" (under 60), a 50/50 raffle, and other raffled prizes.

A scrumptious lunch and dinner buffet was provided by The Winking Lizard Restaurant. Following dinner, the crowd was welcomed by the Alumni Association's new president, Felix Fedor '56, and by Pat Conochan '77. Pat is an assistant football coach at Notre Dame - Cathedral Latin School, and gave a brief preview for the prospects of this fall's football squad. He also thanked the Latin alumni for the support that has been provided to the school, particularly over the past few years.

The tournament could not have been much closer, with three teams finishing just one shot back of the winner (who scored 61). The winning squad consisted of Tom Catliota '71, his brother-in-law Leo Hyland '77, Greg Ferazza (son of Dan Ferazza '46), and Brian Kerns. The big winner in the 50/50 raffle was Denis Flannery '70.

This year's event was dedicated to the memory of William Ternansky '26, who passed away earlier this year. Whether you knew him as Herr Ternansky, Mr. T, or just plain "sir", few can forget the enormous impact this man had on literally thousands of young men at CL. As a loyal alumnus, a dedicated teacher and scholar, and devoted CL parent, William Ternansky was part of the Latin family from 1922 until the school's closing in 1979 (yes...he was still teaching at Latin in 1979!).

Besides the miles of good fellowship that Latin alumni relished at the event, it also served a fundraiser for our Alumni Association. Golf Committee Chairman, Leo Hyland '77, reported that the net take from the outing to the association will exceed $8,000 - a new record.

"We took advantage of the holiday weekend this year to maximize our turnout, and that worked out nicely. I especially want to thank our hole sponsors, those who donated prizes, all our guys who came to play and have fun. We had golfers from classes ranging from 1945 to 1979."

Proceeds from the golf outing help the alumni association keep down the prices for its other annual events. Mark you calendars now for next year's event - the tentative date is Friday, June 29. If you'd like to play, sponsor a hole, or have suggestions, send Leo Hyland an e-mail message at cls_1977@yahoo.com or call him directly at 216.691.1545.

B Jimmy D'Amato '73 and Ralph Jamieson '76 enjoy the day.

C The Winners: Greg Ferazza, Leo Hyland '77, Brian Kerns and Tom Catliota '71 took the trophy with a sizzling 61.

D The Palumbo clan -- Greg '75, Pat '76, Paul '73, and Marty '79 -- made its annual run for the title.

Happy Birthday to us

September, 1916, Cathedral Latin School opens.

June, 1979, Cathedral Latin School closes.

The Millennium, Cathedral Latin Alumni Association celebrates its 50th anniversary.

Based on the first two facts, an outsider might be inclined to think there are only memories of Cathedral Latin School, and certainly not an alumni association celebrating its 50th birthday.

The Cathedral Latin Alumni Association can rest assured that the officers elected at the May 2000 annual meeting are committed to continuing and improving our wonderful organization.

Since the May elections, the new officers have met on a regular basis to plan improvements and implement goals for our future years. In this regard, you will notice the following:

- The hiring of Sue Wise as our office coordinator. Sue is the wife of Terry Wise, '77. Many of you have already commented on the fast response to telephone calls, as well as her assistance to your many requests. Welcome aboard, Sue!

- We have a new, state-of-the-art computer in the Alumni office to enable the association to better serve our alumni in the future.

- We have new telephone (216-691-9999) and fax (216-691-9919) numbers in addition to our web site, www.cathedrallatin.com.

- As is evident, we have redesigned the Latin Alumnotes. The new look comes from Bill Gardner, '76, a professional graphic artist. Our new editor is Pat Hyland, '76, who is putting his many years of professional experience to work for us.

This past year has already seen more alumni involvement at the annual Communion Breakfast (largest turnout in five years) and a record participation and attendance at the annual golf outing in June.

We are now preparing for our annual Hall of Fame dinner to be held on Friday, Nov. 10 at the Hilton South on Rockside Road in Independence. Mark your calendars to attend this great event. Many alumni find this a good time to get together with classmates and old friends. It is well worth attending.

Dominic LoGalbo, '50, a stalwart of the alumni association, is taking on a new challenge in the formation of the Cathedral Latin Alumni marching band. It is anticipated that the band will perform in the 2001 St. Patrick's Day parade in Cleveland. All former band members, as well as those alumni who can play a musical instrument, are encouraged to call the alumni office to sign up. Dominic will contact you regarding practice.

This is only the start. Future issues of the Latin Alumnotes will bring you up to date on other new projects, improvement on existing functions and events, as well as any new event of interest to the alumni.

We, the Cathedral Latin Alumni, have an alumni association second to none! Our future is before us! There is no equal to The Latin Man!

Notebook

Attention former Latin band members! Do you still have your band instrument? Can you still play? If you are interested in forming an alumni band, please contact the alumni office. If there is enough interest, you will be contacted to explore the possibilities of such an undertaking. The band could be available for various events such as the St. Patrick's Day parade, golf outings, reunions and maybe even a football game.

Included in this issue of the Alumnotes is our first color advertisement. The newest items offered – just in time for cold weather – is the Cathedral Latin parka. This very warm, made-in-the-USA coat is available in either blue or hunter green, has four exterior pockets and one interior zipped pocket, and is available in sizes M through XXXL. Best of all, you choose which of the six Latin logos you want embroidered. If you are interested in having Tom Divis or John Winter "set up the store" at your reunion, call John at 216-991-1133.

The class of 1945 will hold its 55-year reunion at 6 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 11 at Casa DiBorally party center in Richmond Heights. Cost is $45 per person. For details, call Jack Barno (216-289-3053) or Bill Mason (440-777-0660).

The Alumni office has extra copies of the 1979 yearbooks available. Anyone interested in obtaining a copy should call the office.

Notre Dame-Cathedral Latin School will hold its annual open house for prospective families on Sunday, Nov. 5 from noon to 3 p.m.

In recognition of its recent golden jubilee, the class of 1949 has donated $500 to the Alumni Association.

Strong turnout makes Communion Breakfast big hit

"A truly outstanding Communion Breakfast" was the most frequently heard comment by the Latin alumni and friends attending the 49th annual Alumni Communion Breakfast held April 9.

Starting with Mass at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist in downtown Cleveland, to the breakfast at the downtown Marriott Hotel, the event was attended by some 300 Latin alumni, family and friends -- the largest attendance in the last five years.

Past President Jim Hyland, '78, and event chairman Felix Fedor, '56, coemceed the breakfast. John Robertson, '54, recipient of the Cathedral Latin Merit Award, told the audience what his years at the school meant to him throughout his life.

The main speaker, U.S. Rep. Michael DeWine, spoke of his experience in the Senate, the impact of Catholic principles in his life, and of certain programs the Senate was working on.

The breakfast also marked the 50-year anniversary of the Cathedral Latin Alumni Association. Members of the class of 1950 were special guests of the association. The event concluded with Dominic LoGalbo, '50, leading the audience in singing the school fight song.

Mark your calendar to attend next year's 50th annual Alumni Communion Breakfast on April 29, 2001.

Members of the golden jubilee class of 1950 were honored at the Communion Breakfast.
