PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

The Latin Spirit Lives

Since the last issue of the Alumnotes, the Alumni Association has hosted its 50th annual Communion Breakfast and its 9th annual golf outing. In addition, a visit was made to the Southern California chapter. Those who attended any of these events can only conclude that the Latin Spirit is like a fine wine, getting better as it ages. It is truly a tribute to the men of Cathedral Latin School.

Visiting with alumni at these events is a most gratifying experience. Without exception, each and every person I talk with exhibits a sense of camaraderie with his fellow alumni. The school has been closed for 22 years, yet a bond of loyalty exists. Whether one talks of scholastic achievement, athletic victories or the education provided by the Marianist brothers, we all feel a sense of pride knowing we are part of the Latin history.

The association's next event is its annual Hall of Fame dinner on Friday, Nov. 9. The Nominating Committee has selected four outstanding individuals to be inducted, and the Hall of Fame Committee has planned an outstanding evening for all who attend. Once again, Cathedral Latin alumni will enjoy that wonderful sensation we call the Latin Spirit.

Finally, if your class reunion is scheduled for this year, make it a point to send in your reservation. This is the one event that happens once every five years for each class. Why miss it?

Mark your calendar now to attend the Hall of Fame dinner and your class reunion. When the invitation arrives in the mail, be the first to respond. These are your opportunities to experience that Latin Spirit.

Alumni celebrate 50th Communion Breakfast

Nearly 300 Cathedral Latin alumni, family and friends turned out to celebrate the 50th annual Communion Breakfast, which was held Sunday, April 29 in downtown Cleveland.

The golden jubilee event began with Mass at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist. Bishop Anthony M. Pilla '51 was principal celebrant. He was joined by Rev. Vincent P. O'Dea '28, Rev. Joseph Ciolek '40, Rev. William J. Johnson '43, Rev. Alan M. Sprenger '48, Rev. Victorian Haladus, O.F.M. '51, Rev. Francis C. Mulvanity '51, Rev. Ralph Thomas '56, Deacon John Sferry '63, and Deacon John T. Wenzel '65 as concelebrants.

Following Mass, the crowd gathered at the Marriott Hotel for the traditional breakfast, which featured the class of 1951 as honorary guests of the alumni association. Association President Felix Fedor '56 emceed the program.

Jose C. Feliciano '68 as the Latin Man of the Year. In a moving acceptance, Feliciano recalled his Latin days, thanking the Marianist brothers, teachers and classmates for helping him during his high school years. He concluded by giving special acknowledgment to his parents for their guidance and attention to him.

Douglas C. Clifton, editor of The Plain Dealer, was the featured speaker. As the newspaper's new editor, Clifton told the audience of his plans for the paper, citing its role in the community and how it would fulfill its mission.

Fedor presented Bishop Pilla with a donation to The Bishop's Seminary Fund, a charity that Pilla began to assist Cleveland-area priesthood candidates.

The event concluded with Dominic LoGalbo '50 leading all in attendance with the singing of the Cathedral Latin school song.

Mark your calendars to attend next year's Communion Breakfast, which will be held April 21, 2002.

Alum-Notables

'68 Frank Cardinale has been promoted to senior vice president at the Benjamin Rose Institute in Cleveland. Cardinale, who serves as a trustee and treasurer for the Cathedral Latin Alumni Association, is responsible for the financial affairs of Benjamin Rose, including fiscal planning, budget controls, financial accountability, fund balance management and reporting.

Prior to joining Benjamin Rose in 1986, he served as manager of financial services for Seeley Medical, and was director of general accounting for the Mt. Sinai Medical Center in Cleveland.

A resident of Chesterland, Cardinale also teaches accounting at Ursuline College, Lake Erie College and Lakeland Community College.

'53 Vincent M. Panichi has been granted professor emeritus status in the Department of Accountancy by John Carroll University.

Panichi is a senior director and one of the founding principals of Ciuni & Panichi, Inc., a regional accounting and business consulting firm. He is a 1957 graduate of John Carroll University, and has nearly 30 years of academic experience with the university.

Hall of Fame Inductees

Tony Severino - Class of 1966

Tony Severino excelled in basketball, football and baseball earning eight varsity letters for the purple and gold. He was a three-year starter for the Lions as a forward in basketball, a two-year starter at tight end in football, and a three-year starter at catcher in baseball.

In his junior and senior years, Tony led the basketball team in three consecutive wins over the powerful East Tech teams - including the game that handed the Scarabs the first loss on their home court in 10 years. During his senior year he was selected to the All-East Senate team, The Plain Dealer's 1966 Basketball Dream Team, the Cleveland Press Star Team, and the Call and Post's All-Scholastic Team.

Tony received a football scholarship to Kansas State University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in education. He later received his master's degree in education from the University of Kansas.

He has continued his winning ways as a high school football coach and teacher at Rockhurst High School in Kansas, Missouri. His teams have won five state championships, and have qualified for state playoff competition 20 of the last 22 years. In addition to winning the Missouri state crown in 2000, Severino garnered his fourth Missouri coach of the year honor, and was named the 2000 USA Today National Coach of the Year.

Tony resides at Overland Park, Kansas, with his wife, Marilyn and their three sons, Scott, Jeff and Brandon. He joins classmates Larry Eiben and Frank Titas in the hall.

Richard Theisen - Class of 1949

Dick was a one-sport superstar on the hardwood at Latin, and became a well traveled player in the sport.

One of the tallest Lion hoopsters of his era, the 6-foot-8 Thiesen started at center his junior and senior seasons.

During his senior campaign, Dick was the team's leading scorer, the second-leading scorer in the East Senate, and the third-leading scorer in the city. That team finished with record of 12-5, Latin's best hoops record to date.

His personal honors included being chosen by the Cleveland News and Cleveland Press as first-team all-Senate and all-Catholic. He received a basketball scholarship to Duquesne University, and later played semi-pro before signing with the Washington Bullets in the NBA in 1954. After that season, he joined the Washington Generals touring with the Harlem Globetrotters.

Dick worked with the building trades for 42 years until his retirement in 1992. He lives in Willowick.

He joins classmates Joe Glowik and teammate Richard Manning in the Hall of Fame.

Anthony Federico - Class of 1955

Tony was a star both as a Latin track man and football tailback, earning three track letters and two in football.

As the team's fastest sprinter, he ran the 100, 200 and 880 relay. In the 1955 Knights of Columbus track meet at the Cleveland Arena, Tony qualified for the finals in the 50-yard dash, ranking him among the top six sprinters from both the East and West sides of the city.

At just 160 pounds and playing on two of Latin's greatest gridiron teams, Tony was the home run threat that electrified the crowd every time he touched the ball. Playing alongside CL Hall of Famers Bobby Mandato, Ron Toth and Jack Goodrich, Federico scored a touchdown the very first time he touched the ball as a junior.

His stunning 17 yards per carry led his undefeated, city-champion 1954 senior squad. Tony, who died April 5, becomes the ninth member of that powerhouse team to join the Hall of Fame. Other classmates are Tony Diczno, Robert Fitzgerald, Pete Pucher, Ron Toth, Don Lawrence, Richard Krebs, Jack Goodrich and Dick Telenk. Tony attended John Carroll University on a football scholarship. After graduating, he joined the coaching profession and was selected as coach of the year twice - at Chanel (1967) and Richmond Heights (1972).

James Monroe - Class of 1956

Another two-sport star in track and football, Jim earned three varsity letters in each sport.

"Big Jim" started every game at defensive middle guard as a sophomore, junior and senior at Latin, as well as playing offensive tackle his senior year. His huge presence made moving him left, right or backward next to impossible, and his remarkable quickness made him a formidable pass rusher and lead blocker.

The Lions rolled up an impressive 18-1 record Jim's sophomore and junior seasons, including a Charity Game win to give the Lions the city title in 1954. That year, eight of the team's 10 wins were shutouts. With the entire offensive team graduating the previous year and the head coach resigning just one week before the opening game with rival St. Ignatius his senior year, the 1955 Lions stumbled to a 3-5-1 record. "Tiny" also competed all four years as a shot putter for Latin's track teams.

Jim entered the Society of Mary after graduation. He earned his undergraduate degree in education from the University of Dayton, and a master's degree in education from Xavier University.

During his 10 years as a Marianist, he taught one year at Latin (1965-66) and seven years at Dayton Chaminade, where he coached two sectional and one district baseball champion teams.

He was a teacher, coach and athletic director for 25 years in the Dayton public schools, retiring in 1998.

Now married with two children, Jim works as an office manager, tax preparer and instructor for H&R Block in Dayton.

He joins classmate Mike Jezior as a member of the Hall of Fame.

9th annual Latin Alumni Golf Outing

Golf outing sells out again

The ninth annual Cathedral Latin Alumni Golf Outing was enjoyed this year by over 170 participants. It was a big day for the Class of 1956, which is celebrating its 45th reunion this month.

The event is expected to net the alumni association about $7,500, according to outing chairman Leo Hyland '77. Proceeds will be used for the association's current operations and to provide support to Notre Dame – Cathedral Latin School (NDCL).

With a blistering 12-under par score, the big winners for the scramble event were John Argie '56, Al Rossi '56, Tim Deegan, and Frank Roddy '56. Other prizes were awarded for a skins game, 50/50 raffle, and a wide array of skill prizes. Seniors enjoyed separate opportunities to win prizes.

This year's fun-filled event was held on Friday, June 29, at Grantwood Golf Course in Solon. About 150 golfers played in the shotgun style outing, which means that the event was again sold out. The golf was followed by dinner and an awards program in the Grantwood party hall. The dinner crowd was warmly welcomed by Alumni Association President Felix Fedor '56, who brought a chuckle to the program.

Guest speaker for the program was NDCL's new head football coach, Bob Wolfe. Wolfe brings over 30 years of experience at the high school and college level to his new position. He is also the school's director of communications.

In his comments, Coach Wolfe shared his respect for the rich athletic traditions of Cathedral Latin and his enthusiasm for imparting that spirit and "burning desire to win" to his young Lion team.

Coach Wolfe brought a foursome of NDCL folks to the outing, including the captain of NDCL's 2000 state championship golf team, Tim Skufca. He also invited all CL alumni to join the NDCL family for two upcoming events at the school. The third annual NDCL Kick-off Cookout was held on Saturday, August 11, and the annual Alumni Game will be held Saturday, September 29 against Padua.

As usual, the program concluded with a rousing rendition of the CL fight song.

Outing volunteers and "dinner only" alumni boosted the overall attendance to 170. Hyland expressed his gratitude on behalf of the association to all of the event hole and prize sponsors, particularly for the hole-in-one prizes sponsored (again!)

by Joe Firment '56.

Special thanks were also given to Sue and Terry Wise '77, Mary Rose Oliver, Joe Boylan '34, Bob Collins '48, Ralph Konkowski '48, Tom Divis '56, Rick Cavolo '74, Frank Cardinale '68, John Winter '53, and John Hyland '80 for their valuable service.

The event is being planned again for the last Friday in June for 2002. Anyone interested in donating prizes, sponsoring holes, or volunteering should contact Leo Hyland at cls\_1977@yahoo.com or by phone at 216.691.1545.

Frank Roddy '56, John Argie '56, Tim Deegan and Al Rossi '56 took home the trophy with a 12-under par.

Bill Leitch '75, Tim Leitch '69, Bob Lowrie '77, and Hal Leitch '73.

NDCL varsity football coach Bob Wolfe, Tim Skufca, and Greg Lockhart '77.

Neil Buckon '71, Paul Buckon '76, Kevin Virkler '66, and Jim Bambrick '71.

Leo Buckon '73, Bill Daley '73, Joe Bechtold '73 and Tom Nolfi '73.

Dennis Murphy '69, Paul Kolb '71, Jim Murphy '72, and Bob Harris '71.

Matt Mangione '78, Mark Mangione, Tim Gros and Kirk Liederbach '78

Among the many class of 1946 participants were Ray Prendergast, Don Ferfolia, John Chambers, Dick Livingston, Dan Ferrazza and Mark Ianni.

Lions claim state baseball crown

The 2001 Notre Dame-Cathedral Latin baseball team captured the Ohio Division II state baseball championship on June 2. The Lions defeated Tallmadge High School 8-0 at Ohio State's Bill Davis Stadium to bring home the second state championship trophy in the 2000-01 sports season (The Lions golf team won the title last fall). NDCL is the first Geauga County school to win a state baseball title. Head Coach Jim Clark's Lions won 23 and lost 6 during the season, earning the North Coast League championship with an 11-3 league record. The Lions, who averaged 8.1 runs per game during the season, outscored their playoff opponents, 87-20. Under Clark, who owns an impressive 154-37 record in seven years (.806 winning percentage), the Lions have won six North Coast League titles, seven sectional titles, five district titles, and played in the regional final game four times in the last five years. Clark also serves as the school's associate athletic director. Five seniors who earned full or partial scholarships to play college baseball paced the team throughout the year. Mike Madsen of Chesterland will pitch for Ohio State; Mark Muscenti of Chardon will play short-stop at the University of Cincinnati; Jim DiLella, a catcher from Kirtland Hills, will play outfield at Coker College in South Carolina; Ray Stencel will pitch at West Virginia University; and pitcher/third baseman Brandon Finomore will play at Cleveland State University.

NDCL selects Petroff

Notre Dame-Cathedral Latin School has announced the hiring of Larry Petroff as director of institutional advancement. The position includes fund raising, admissions and communications. Petroff joins NDCL after serving the past three years at the University of Southern California as an assistant football coach and recruiting coordinator. The Cleveland native served as director of football operations at Ohio State University from 1993-97, working closely with the school alumni association and assisting their fundraising campaigns. Before joining Ohio State, Petroff held recruiting coordinator positions at the university of Illinois, Purdue and the University of Pittsburgh.

A piece of Latin goes to NDCL

When Tim Hyland '73 was the featured speaker at the NDCL Lion Backer football picnic on August 11, he brought with him a piece of the old Latin, both figuratively and literally. Hyland, a co-captain and linebacker who went on to play at Georgia Tech, told the young Lions what playing at Latin meant to him and how he carried the lessons learned forward into a distinguished professional career.

He then presented each of the varsity football team's 24 seniors a gift box containing brick pieces from the school that stood on East 107th Street. Hyland also gave the players samples of dirt from the old practice field and water from the nearby stream to sprinkle in the Lion Stadium end zones. The Lion Backer picnic is an annual event co-sponsored by the Latin Alumni Association and the NDCL Boosters. It is tentatively held the second Saturday of August on the school grounds. All are invited.

LATIN ALUMNI DAY

All Latin alumni will be admitted free to NDCL's Lion Stadium with this ticket.

Southern California hosts president

On Aug. 15, members of the Cathedral Latin Southern California Chapter welcomed Cathedral Latin Alumni Association President Felix Fedor '56 at the Marriott Hotel at the Los Angeles airport. For many years, the chapter held regular meetings. But as the Los Angeles area expanded and traffic became a burden, the alumni were not able to attend meetings with any regularity. It was hoped that this meeting would be the start of a new era for the chapter. Following dinner, Fedor brought chapter members up to date on the state of the association. He fielded questions on a variety of subjects, and gave a preview of future alumni projects under consideration. Suggestions likewise were offered by the attendees. As regards the restart of the chapter, plans are being made to hold future meetings. All alumni are looking forward to this event. "It was wonderful to see the enthusiasm to their Cathedral Latin heritage. It is most encouraging to be with Cathedral Latin alumni who will never let the Latin Spirit fade from their memories," Fedor said. The evening concluded with Roy Fenstermaker '30 presenting Fedor with a plaque commemorating his visit. Attending alumni were given assorted alumni items, including shirts and hats.

Latin" below the lion. New items include "the old school tie" that is 100 percent silk with purple and gold stripes ($25), a poly-cotton mid-weight golf jacket ($45), and a water repellent wind shirt ($40). These items will be included in the new color brochure that will be mailed to all alumni in the next few months.

The committee has set up its sales table at seven Latin class reunions this summer. This idea seems to be catching on, and the committee is happy to oblige. Any reunion committee interested in having merchandise sold at their gathering should call Sue Wise at the Alumni Association office at (216)691-9999. During the last 12 months that closed June 1, the association sold more than $6,100 worth of Latin merchandise. It remains the association's goal to provide top quality embroidered items for our alumni. Keep us in mind for Christmas gifts in the upcoming holiday season. Our items are unique and the the funds go to support our association.
