

2010 Men of the Year – Nick Orlando '56 and J. Joseph Whelan '60

Nick Orlando '56

Nick Orlando

Nick and his two brothers, Chester (Sonny) and John, like generations past, began working at The Orlando Baking Company on Woodland Avenue in Cleveland, Ohio in grade school, making bread crumbs in the bakery basement. Nick was a member of the first eighth-grade graduating class at Our Lady of Mount Carmel parish and went on to attend Cathedral Latin.

According to family, it was Nick's vision that grew Orlando Baking Company in the 1970s. "He always felt we could do more—do better. Nick had the same outlook in life," Sonny remembers fondly. His father died in 1970 and his mother in 1971. Nick became president in 1970. He harbored big plans for the small family business, pushing brothers Sonny and John to invest $1.4 million in a new plant at 7777 Grand Avenue.

After graduating from Cathedral Latin in 1960, Joe earned his undergraduate and graduate degree from John Carroll University and Case Western Reserve University.

Joe then pursued a teaching career at St. Francis Elementary/High School, before being named principal at Chambers Elementary School in East Cleveland, Ohio from 1969 to 1990. While principal of Chambers, his school was nationally recognized twice by the U.S. Department of Education in 1986 and 1990. This was the first all-minority school in the country to receive that award. J. Joseph Whelan was Ohio's Distinguished Principal in 1988.

After leaving Chambers Elementary School, Joe became a professor of education at John Carroll University for 14 years. Joe taught the undergraduate methods courses and the educational graduate classes. Upon leaving John Carroll, he

“The Big Lion has left the Jungle”

Greetings to all alumni and friends of Cathedral Latin School! In October 2009, we lost one of the association's legendary alumnus Ernest D'Amato '48. Ernie was a past President of the Alumni Association in the 1970s, Man of the Year recipient in 1982, and master of the Latin telethons for many years. Ernie fought long and hard to save our school before the ultimate decision was made by the diocese and the Marianists to close the school. Ernie was still very active in our association after the school's closing where he most recently chaired the Hall of Fame Dinner committee. He was also involved with the Hall of Fame selection and the Man of the Year committees as well. Ernie was Mr. Cathedral Latin in words and deeds. He was one of the driving forces for the last few years to promote hosting our events at NDCL. Ernie fell in love with the NDCL school, campus, vision and made a mission out of encouraging Latin alumni to visit the campus and see the new school and the successor to Cathedral Latin.

Ernie was married to Joan (nee Cox - deceased) and they had seven children, four of which attended Latin (Jimmy '73, Tommy '77, David '78, and Mike '79). He was active at his local church St. Ann's and continued to become involved with Latin as his children grew older. He was always there to help out not only his children but many others that attended Cathedral Latin School. Ernie and my parents were good friends and Ernie even lived up our annual St. Patty's day party. He became a second father to me when my Dad passed several years ago. He was a sounding board for me while I have been president of the Association and he was never bashful about telling me or any other trustee how he felt. That was Ernie! We lost one of our Big Roaring Lions on that Friday in October and his family and the association truly miss him.

I would like to congratulate J. Joseph Whelan '60 and Nick Orlando '56 (deceased) on being selected as this year's Merit Award recipients. I encourage you to make plans to attend our annual Communion Breakfast on April 25 at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in downtown Cleveland where we will honor Joe and Nick for their accomplishments since graduating from Cathedral Latin.

Ernest D'Amato '48

With great appreciation, I thank all of you who contributed to our annual dues for 2009, which amounted to over $40,000 from 1,162 contributors. The 2009 Honor Roll is included in this issue. We cannot keep the organization alive without your allegiance and support. The legacy of our alma mater continues at NDCL where the majority of our contributions are directed. We welcome any alumni who may be interested in joining the association as a trustee.

It is also with a heavy heart that I inform those of you not in the Cleveland area that Regina High School will be closing at the end of this school year. Many sisters, aunts, spouses, and daughters of our alumni attended Regina since it opened in 1956.

Please check your calendar for the annual events we sponsor: 51st Athletic Hall of Fame Induction held at NDCL (September 4) and Latin Alumni Golf Outing (June 25). Those who attend always have a great time. We hope to see you at one of our events this year.

I encourage all and have faith that our alumni will continue to support Catholic education in any way you can. Our association supports Catholic education at NDCL both monetarily and organizationally by interacting with multiple groups at the school. We are a major donor to the NDCL Annual Fund and have made a significant pledge to the current NDCL capital campaign. Please do whatever you can to support not only the legacy of Cathedral Latin School but the legacy of a Catholic education for a deserving young student.

Thanks for continuing to be caring Christian people of our community and showing your Latin Pride in Deed and Truth!

“Nick was the guy with the rose-colored glasses,” insists John. “The vision he had to move to a new, modern plant positioned us for future growth. Nick was also determined to stay in Cleveland and improve the old neighborhood. He loved this city, but it was experiencing bad times and he knew it could be a gamble.

Today, 30 family members work at the 136-year-old family company, including two of Nick’s sons, Michael and Nick Jr. and John and Sonny’s sons.

For more than 105 years, the Orlando family has contributed to many volunteer, fundraising and charitable projects throughout greater Cleveland and Cuyahoga County. Their strongest, non-profit connection is with the Hunger Network of Cleveland, the largest, direct, emergency-food network in Cuyahoga County. They give out an award each year at their annual benefit entitled “The Nick Orlando Giving Award” in honor of Nick.

They are committed to helping the hungry in Cleveland and also support The Cleveland Foodbank, which serves as a clearinghouse for surplus food in the greater Cleveland area. Nick was one of the first to agree to donate to the food bank when it started in the 1970s. Orlando Baking Company also participates in three benefits for Harvest for Hunger: “Celebrity Soup”, “Market Under Glass” and “Taste of the NFL.”

Other organizations that Orlando Baking Company assists are DARE, American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, Ireland Cancer Center, The Kidney Foundation, The Cleveland Pops, The Cleveland Restaurant Association and The Cleveland Metroparks.

Nick’s favorite hobby was photography. Family & historical photographs adorn the wall of the reception and hallway areas at his company as well as hundreds more at his home. He loved to read books about history and anything Italian. Nick was also an avid reader of the New York Times, La Gazzetta Italiana and other publications. He often called the La Gazzetta offices to critique each monthly edition, as well as offer storyline ideas. Sometimes his suggestions even converted into interesting stories.

Nick died on January 9, 2008 of congestive heart failure in Naples, Florida at 69. His wife, Anna Marie preceded him in death in 2004. He is survived by his three children, Nick Jr., Kelly and Mike. Prior to his death, Nick had agreed to serve on the cabinet for NDCL’s Capital Campaign Drive. Sonny says this about his brother, “Nick was a Latin guy through and through. Ever go by his house in Beachwood? You’ll see the Lions on either side of his front walkway.” His Latin letter was one of only two items displayed in his coffin. The other item was his camera.

J. Joseph Whelan '60 (cont'd from page 1)

became an international consultant working with teachers across the United States and Canada.

Joe has had the great fortune to teach at all grade levels. He has taught at the elementary level, middle school level, high school level, college level and post graduate level.

Joe is a Lead Trainer in the process of learning walks, a management by walking around system for improving curriculum and instruction in the classroom. Joe has done on-site instructional analysis and follow-up support through workshops and coaching of Principals and Teachers.

Joe is a highly sought Keynote speaker in North America. His stories, humor and passion for learning are recognized by teachers, principals, and educators with a strong belief that all students can learn regardless of the disadvantages

$1 Million Challenge boosts NDCL Campaign

By: Rick Cavolo '74

There are times when each of us can joyfully count our blessings. We share the blessings of our families, our Catholic faith and having attended Cathedral Latin School—all of which prepared us well for the future. Certainly, there were many who helped make these blessings happen for us, including God, our parents, the Marianists and the faculty and staff members at Latin. We realize that none of us accomplish mighty deeds by ourselves.

It is in this spirit that I ask you to consider giving back to help others who now walk in our footsteps—on a path of Catholic education that will prepare them for a life well-lived. NDCL is in the midst of an important $4.5 million capital campaign that will position the school well for the 21st century and beyond. One of our own CL alumni has offered a $1 million Challenge Grant to help ensure the success of the campaign and to encourage others to contribute to the cause. This generous opportunity matches new gifts to the campaign at a 2:1 ratio, up to $5,000! And from $5,001 to $100,000, a new gift is matched dollar for dollar. Let's make the most of this opportunity!

I have had the good fortune of being involved both with the CL Alumni Association and NDCL right from the creation of the school. I am truly amazed and humbled by how well this relationship has evolved. The NDCL community truly values the partnership of the CLAA and our own alumni now routinely hold reunions on campus, sponsors the Hall of Fame Dinner and many Latin alumni continue to support the school financially. God bless you all for that!

At this key point in the school's history, I am asking each of you to look into your heart and consider "giving back" in the form of a financial commitment to the NDCL Capital Campaign. There simply is no better way to demonstrate the real "Latin spirit" than to give as generously as you can afford. Remember, your gift will be matched by the $1 Million Challenge—making your good deed as powerful as it can be. Today's Lions are counting on your help, just as we have all benefited from the care and generosity of others.

You can make a gift on the NDCL website at www.NDCL.org, leave a gift through your estate, or contact Leo Hyland '77 at leo.hyland@ndcl.org or (888) 214-8109, x264. Please take some action to ensure the success of this campaign today.

Dr. Cavolo is a two-time past president of the Cathedral Latin Alumni Association, a parent of three NDCL graduates, a co-chair of the NDCL Capital Campaign and a member of the NDCL Board of Directors.

NDCL Lion's Mane Event

NDCL's 19th Annual "Lion's Mane Event", themed Denim and Diamonds, is Saturday, April 24th from 6 p.m. to midnight in the Michael McGarry Gymnasium at NDCL. The CL Alumni Association will again be a Diamond Sponsor of this special event. The Lion's Mane Event is NDCL's largest fundraising event and the proceeds benefit student scholarships at NDCL.

You can also support this event by attending, sponsoring, or purchasing "Lion's Pride Raffle" tickets at

Legacy Day – April 16

The 3rd annual Legacy Day luncheon at NDCL will be held on Friday, April 16th. This event promises to be another sell-out for both alumni and students. On display will be memorabilia from Cathedral Latin, Notre Dame Academy and "early" NDCL. The event runs from 11:30-1:15 p.m. Donation is $15.00 per person. Visit www.ndcl.org for more information. We hope you can join us for good food, company and the meeting of NDCL students.
