

WWII Plaque Dedication at NDCL

Over 55 guests attended the WWII plaque dedication ceremony at NDCL on May 9. The attendees included 45 Latin alums (some veterans) along with NDCL students and faculty. The Ohio Patriot Guard Riders were also present at the event. This diverse group of men and women were there to show their sincere respect for our fallen heroes.

Fr. Jim Caddy gave a beautiful speech and blessing. Afterward, Joe Nista '64 read the names of those on the plaque. Some family members of the deceased were present for the event.

Dinner was served after the ceremony as guests gathered in the cafeteria. Many veterans shared their stories with NDCL students. It was a wonderful day to honor the Latin men, both living and deceased, who made the supreme sacrifice in defense of the freedoms we now enjoy.

David Murphy '76 and his sister Kathy stand by the WWII plaque which displays their uncle's name – Vincent Murphy.

The restored bronze plaque which once hung on the wall of Cathedral Latin School is now mounted near the McGarry Gymnasium on the east side of the school. It is a tribute to fallen WWII veterans and was commissioned by the Class of 1947.

Come march with us in the parade and then head over to the Kimpton Schofield Hotel, 2000 East 9th Street, for lunch and music. We will be serving corned beef, cabbage, rye bread and red skin potatoes. John Nowel '71, an accomplished musician, will be playing Irish music at the reception.

Your family members are also invited to attend. There is no cost to you except for drinks. This may be our final year in the parade, so hopefully you will be able to join us. For more information, please contact Sue Wise at 216-691-9999.

Putting Our Heritage Back Into NDCL and Welcome to a New President at NDCL

We've made great strides recently in moving our Cathedral Latin heritage back into NDCL. Thanks to Sister Jacquelyn for all her help in making this happen.

Our WWII plaque was installed at NDCL this past Spring and a dedication ceremony was held at NDCL on May 9. The plaque now sits in the hallway just outside the McGarry Gym.

After many years as dedicated teacher and, more recently, as NDCL President, Sister Jacquelyn Gusdane, SND has decided to retire. Many thanks to her for the effective leadership she provided as President of NDCL and, this past year, as President of both NDCL and Notre Dame Elementary.

Dr. Michael Bates assumed the Presidency of NDCL and of Notre Dame Elementary in June. Dr. Bates has expressed a deep interest in establishing strong ties with CLAA and in promoting the heritage of Cathedral Latin School at NDCL. We look forward to working with him.

The Brother Frank Nurthen Endowed Scholarship Fund continues to grow with a current balance of $169,890. Contributions this year have been $5,555. We want to thank all of you who made a donation.

CLAA Trustees approved a donation of $15,000 over a 5 year period to the Marianist drive to support their current missions and their retirement fund. We made our first $3,000 donation in June 2017.

Remember there is no Hall of Fame Sports Induction Ceremony this year and no NDCL Legacy Day in 2018. These events will occur every other year.

Joe Nista '64, President

NDCL Hires New President

This year Notre Dame Schools announced the appointment of Dr. Michael J. Bates as the schools' president. Dr.

Bates was the interim president of Notre Dame Academy, Los Angeles. Previously he was head of school at La Reina High School and Middle School in Thousand Oaks, California.

He holds a bachelor's degree in history from Catholic University of America and a master's degree in pastoral studies from Loyola University of Chicago. He earned his Ed.D. in educational leadership for social justice from Loyola Marymount University.

As president, his responsibilities will include implementing the schools' strategic plan, directing the advancement and finance teams, and overseeing marketing and enrollment management.

"I believe in the transformational education that the Sisters of Notre Dame inspire and engage," Bates said. "How thankful I am to be entrusted to lead our Notre Dame Schools in these coming years. I look forward to all that we can accomplish together on behalf of our students and school community."

Bates and his wife, Nancy, have two boys, Peter and Brian, and currently reside in Chagrin Falls, Ohio.

We welcome Dr. Michael Bates and look forward to working with him as his new role of President at NDCL.

Rain Held Off for Golf Outing

After much heavy rain during the morning of our golf outing, the sun came out and we were able to have a beautiful day for the annual Golf Outing. Some say it was the result of the prayers from Brother Frank Nurthen! The outing was on Friday, June 30 at Grantwood Golf Course in Solon, Ohio. Golfers were each given a purple folding chair with a gold charging lion on the back.

The Winking Lizard served up delicious hamburgers and sausage sandwiches for lunch. After golf, everyone made their way to the indoor banquet room to enjoy a chicken and rib dinner. We would like to thank Jeff and his crew for cooking and serving these tasty meals.

A 50/50 raffle was held and lots of great prizes were won. A special thank you to Paul Ertel '71 who each year donates gift certificates for lunch and dinner cruises from the Nautica Queen.

Paul Palumbo '73, Pat Palumbo '76, Greg Palumbo '75 & Greg Sagerman took home first place by shooting 11 under par with a score of 60. They each received a nice plaque from Minotas Trophies and a Dicks Sporting Goods gift card. Congratulations to each of them!

This golf outing event is our only fundraiser for our alumni association. We raised close to $10,300, which helps to keep our alumni association going strong. We couldn't have done this without the support of our hole sponsors. Mike D'Amato '79, owner of Nissan of North Olmsted, sponsored a sign on every hole – “Are you Kiddin’ Me!” Thank you to all the sponsors. Your support is deeply appreciated.

We would like to thank everyone who volunteered to sell 50/50 tickets, hand out gifts and help with the skins game – Ben Carlozzo '71, Rick Cavolo '74, Frank Hlad '68, Chris Lynch '75, Joe Nista '64, Richard Welsh '72 and Terry Wise '77. A special thank you goes out to Sue Wise. Each year she works hard to make sure everything runs smoothly. The golfers took up a special collection for her as a thank you for all the hard work she does for the alumni association. She was very humbled for this gesture and thanked everyone for the gift.

Please mark your calendar for next year's outing. It will be Friday, June 29, 2018 at Grantwood Golf Course. We hope to see you there!

1966

Joe Kilburg has played in the Huff-N-Puffers 60-year old and over softball league for the last two years in Parma, Ohio. The amazing part is that he hadn't played the game in 28 years, but such a long layoff didn't deter his prowess on the softball diamond. He is an All-Star pitcher and the leadoff hitter for his team while maintaining a .700 plus batting average. His team won the league championship playoffs in which he had over a .900 batting average. Congrats Joe on such a remarkable performance the last two years!

1969

Donald Bakaitis, RN has retired from the Cleveland Clinic and is now a videographer for the Cleveland Gladiators of the Arena Football League.

1977

A special thank you to the Class of 1977 who made a $350.00 donation to the Bro. Frank Nurthen Endowed Scholarship fund. This gift was from money left over at their 40th Class reunion. Your donation is greatly appreciated!

Michael Mucci '73 Retires as Men's Basketball Coach

Michael Mucci, the winningest coach in the 99 year history of the Haverford College men's basketball program, has announced his retirement after 22 years on the Haverford sidelines. He became the program's all-time winningest coach with a 64-59 victory against Dickinson inside the Calvin J. Gooding '84 Arena during the 2009-10 season and finished his Haverford career with 185 wins.

"I am grateful to have had the opportunity to coach for forty years within the collegiate ranks and to have been acquainted with wonderful coaches and scholar-athletes who will always remain trusted friends and colleagues," explained Mucci. "I look forward to exploring new opportunities and having the time to enjoy the upcoming summer traveling abroad with my wife, Karen Kauffman."

Mucci led Haverford to six postseason appearances and recorded a program-record 14 wins in a season four different times. Those seasons were highlighted by Haverford's run to the Centennial Conference Championship game during the 2006-07 season. He has also taken the team abroad to Italy, Portugal, Spain, Ireland, and most recently a trek to Belgium in 2012.

Among his coaching accolades, the Fords' leader was named the Philadelphia Small Colleges Coaches Association Coach of the Year following the 2002-03 season. Recently, coach Mucci was recognized with the Sam Schoenfield Sportsmanship Award by the College Basketball Officials Association at the conclusion of the 2011 season.

Mucci came to Haverford after 18 years as a Division I assistant coach with stops at Villanova, Robert Morris, and Yale. His longest tenure as an assistant came at Yale where he turned the Bulldogs into one of the most respected Ivy League programs during his 13 seasons on the bench.

Congratulations to Mike on his lifetime dedication to coaching.

Lieutenant Colonel Edward Maj '42

A Lifetime of Service

In 1943, Edward Maj was drafted into the Army at the young age of 19. By 1944 he was an enlisted man aboard the USAT Sea Snipe. The next year and a half included travels to Bougainville Island, Lingayen Gulf, Philippines, Manila Heights and Japan. His first tour ended in 1946.

Maj attended the University of Dayton where he graduated in 1950 with a Bachelors of Science in Education. While there, he met his future wife Genevieve Marheski at a school dance.

He returned to the service under a commissioned position as a second lieutenant. He reported to the 30th Field Artillery Battalion in Fr. Bragg, North Carolina and was soon promoted to first lieutenant.

In 1951, Maj was deployed to Germany. He was always on alert status and he went to bed with his boots by his bedside. His unit was located very close to the Czech border, which meant his unit was constantly surveying the landscape. Maj was part of an artillery unit and served as the battery exec which meant he was responsible for the firing of six individual howitzers. He had about 90 enlisted men training with him and needed to ensure that every shot was correct and every round went to the right place.

His assignment changed and Maj and his family relocated to Gary, Indiana where he served as Commanding Officer of Battery D 79th Missile Battalion (NIKE). While there, he noticed the Army did not have a flag pole and begged welders from a nearby construction site to put together 50' tubes. He talked the electrical company to come out and erect the poles. He even convinced the workers who were building a new shopping center to bring their cement mixer to their site and finish the job.

In 1967, Lieutenant Colonel Maj retired from active duty and returned to Cincinnati to work in the development office at Xavier University. He was devoted to helping great institutions.

He moved to Big Rapids, Michigan in 1980 and took the role of Director of Development for Ferris State University. It was there that he saw how low their funding was and made it his mission to raise money for the school's endowment.

In 1995, he worked at Cincinnati's St. Rita School for the Deaf. His time spent there brought him much pride and joy. Maj helped to bring in funds from cities across the country to support the school.

Today, Maj is retired and lives in the Wyoming community. His wife passed away several years ago, but he spends time with his eight children who live nearby. He volunteers at Summit Country Day and helps at the Spirit Center in Norwood.

Lieutenant Colonel Maj has a mission to leave behind a legacy of hard work and leaving people and places better than when he found them. He truly lives his life the Latin way – in deed and truth.

Primo Vino Restaurant Closes

Primo Vino Restaurant and wine bar closed its doors on August 11, 2017. Located at 12511 Mayfield Road in Little Italy (Cleveland, Ohio) they had been in existence since 1982. The building is more than 100 years old and over time it fell into disarray. Owners Robert Fatica and Carmen Armenti made the decision to sell their property to make way for new condominiums. Later this year the building will be demolished.

In 1981, Cathedral Latin School was scheduled to be demolished by Boyas Excavating. Fatica and Armenti had a friend who knew someone at Boyas and asked if they could buy some of the materials in the school for their restaurant. After confirmation, they went to the school to retrieve some items. They chiseled out the marble floor slabs from the main and upper hallways, which took about 2 weeks to complete. They also took out classroom hardwood flooring, several handrails, interior classroom doors and some doors from the Marianist's House. A classroom chalkboard was also taken.

Fatica and Armenti hired Amish workers to refinish the wood flooring, cut it and have it mounted on table tops. The white marble was used for the flooring and bar countertops. The chalkboard posted their daily food specials. The extra items were stored on the second floor of their restaurant

We are happy that the owners contacted the alumni association to give our alums a chance to purchase some of these Latin treasures. We have stored some maple hardwood flooring, handrails of various lengths and marble tiles (10" x 20" x 1"), so if you have an interest of owning a piece of the school, please contact Sue Wise.

Primo Vino owner Carmen Armenti & Sue Wise

We wish Carmen and Robert success in their future endeavors and will miss their restaurant which showcased a little of Cathedral Latin School.

Latin Clergy Celebrate Jubilees

Bishop Gries was the celebrant. We would like to congratulate Deacon Frederick F. Giel '53 who celebrated 30 years and Deacon Bruce J. Battista '71 celebrating 10 years.

The annual diocesan celebration was April 22, 2017 at the Center for Pastoral Leadership to mark jubilees of religious. A Mass was held followed by lunch. We are grateful to Father Arthur B. Egan '48 celebrating 60 years and Father Ralph G. Hudak '68 celebrating 40 years.

We give thanks for those who received God's call and answered it. May God bless you for your service to the church.

The Father Paul Marshall Memorial Scholarship

Father Paul Marshall, S.M. '65 spent 47 years as a Marianist. He achieved a lot during those years of service to Mary and to the church. He was a social worker, a teacher, a parish pastor and a university administrator.

Father Paul embraced the role as a leader in the black Catholic community throughout the United States. He had a great passion for social and racial justice and promoting the gift of the black Catholic community to the entire church.

In his own words, "The Marianists have always been open to someone of a different culture. Our life together, I believe, is a witness to the kingdom of God. Every race, culture, and people is called to be followers of God. Mary, our model of faith, praised God who raised the lowly and freed the oppressed. Working for freedom and promoting the faith in the black community have given meaning to my life as a Marianist."

In his service as pastor of St. Aloysius Church in Cleveland and during his time as urban corps director in the youth services office for the City of Dayton, Father Paul reached out to young people on a daily basis. The Father Paul Marshall Memorial Scholarship will continue that legacy of making a difference to African American young men and women from Father Paul's home town of Cleveland who attend the University of Dayton.

You can make a gift by mail by sending a check made payable to University of Dayton, 300 College Park, Dayton, OH 45469-7054 (note Fr. Paul Marshall scholarship on memo line) or on-line by credit card at givenow.udayton.edu. In the comments section, type "Father Paul Marshall Memorial Scholarship."

Archives Room at NDCL

NDCL has given our alumni association a room to store our archives. The room was once a school bookstore, but has been cleared out to store our archives and display Latin memorabilia. It is located on the second floor of the school. We are working to move our archives by the end of the year.
